Always Remember

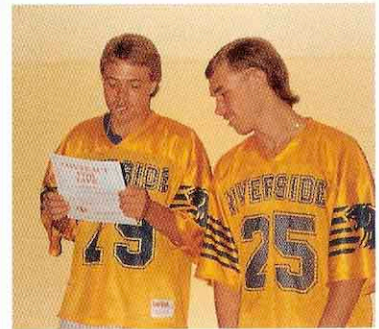

The year 1990-91 was absolutely a year to remember. Whether it was making the choice about class rings, "helping" a friend in need, or just wishing for Friday to hurry up and get here. The memories are endless and all of them will remain with us throughout our lives.

..... Never Forget

With the first day of school, the first day of memories began. That moment when you sign the Contract for Life to remain drug-free or just stopping to look around to take in the memories. And then wondering will you get that book read to get your book report finished.

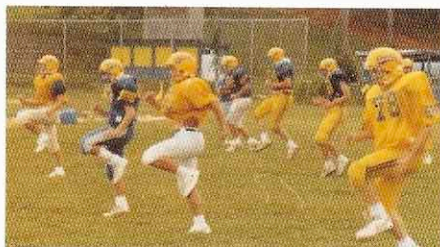

What's Happening?

When you look around Riverside you'll always see that something is happening. The students at Riverside are always doing something to keep themselves occupied. Not only is there always something happening, but a variety of things are happening because every student at Riverside is a unique person who adds pizzazz to the Riverside happenings.

Whether it be gossiping, talking with friends in person or on the phone, running around in a panther suit, practicing football or the piano, or just primp-ing in the bathroom. Hey! What can we say — Riverside is just a happening school!

Panther: "Ooow!" Quit pulling on my whiskers!"

Football Players: "Come on, boys. One, two, three, kick!"

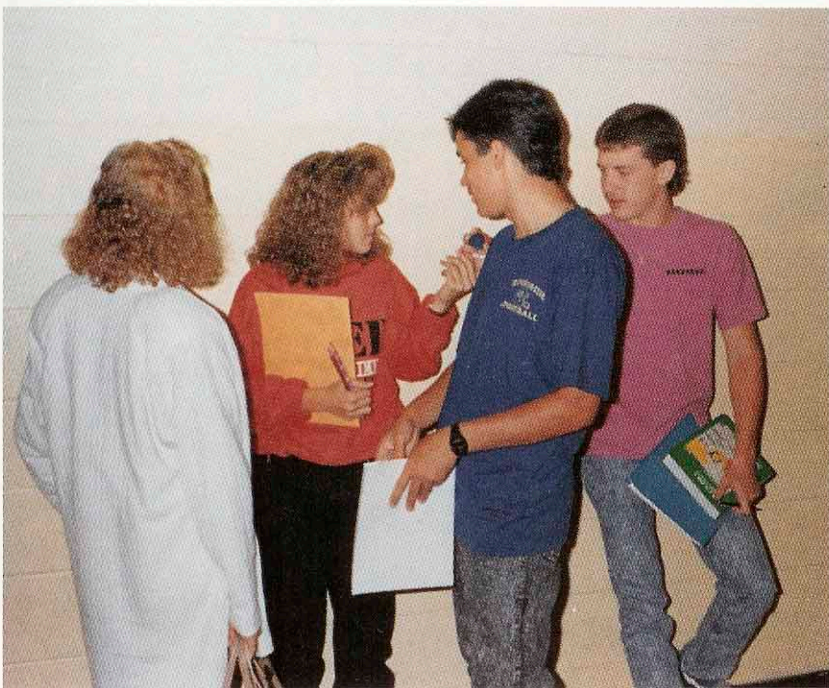

Chris McNatt: "Bruce Hornsby, look out!"

Amanda Hasher: "Hello, operator? Can you put me through to Japan?"

Maronda Taylor: "You have already told me this about ten times!"

Lesley Lunsford: "Do you know what you can do with this?"

Melissa Lee: "Get out of my way! I can't see how beautiful I look."

What is your most embarrassing happening?

Kristie White: "When I was in the flag corps, I bent over while we were marching and my shorts ripped."

Darren Hicks: "I was in a whirlpool and I got caught in my birthday suit by a girl."

Lesley Lunsford: "Deanna Camper pulled my pants down in front of the whole football squad!"

What are you working on?

What are you working on? If you ask that around here, you could get a variety of answers. That's because everyone likes to do his own thing at Riverside.

From academics to vocational to sports, you name it, someone's working on it and doing his very best! But don't get us wrong, when we get done with our work, we Panthers do like to have fun!

One thing we must say — RHS students are dedicated to their work.

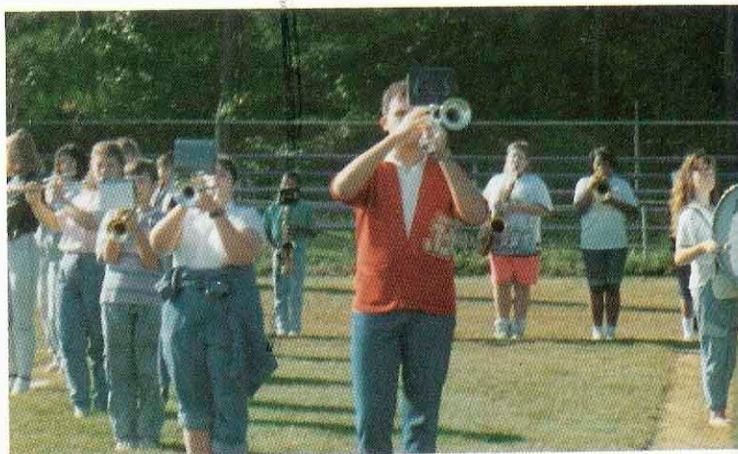

Roseanna Crawley: "Wow! This book is sooo interesting."

Allyson White: "So, Heath, how long have you been holding up the ceiling?"

Coach Barrett: "Ha! Ha! Ha! Missed another one!"

RHS Band: "Practice makes perfect."

Juan Fisher: "Where did you get these answers?"

Brad McBride: "Cecil, I said I wanted the truck blue, not green!"

Art Bawcum: "What is this grass stain doing on my knee?"

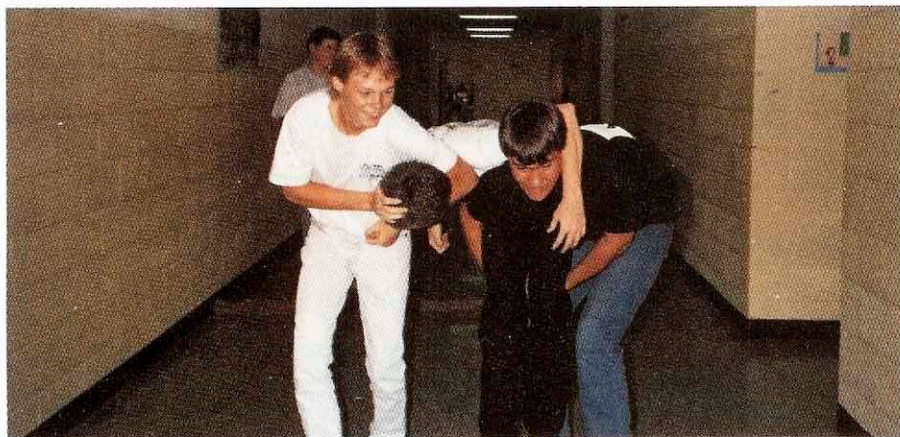

What . . . are you crazy?!?

Yes — there is a lot of craziness going on at Riverside and sometimes it really shows. There is always someone doing something crazy that will make you just fall out of your seat with laughter! It's just one of the things that add color to your school day and it's just great to be surrounded with some of the craziest people.

The fun thing about it is that you don't have to study to be crazy — it just comes naturally. So if someone does something crazy and you ask, "What, are you crazy?" The answer is probably yes.

John Mitchell and John Webb: "Riverside Wrestling Mania."

Amy Mayo: "I know my homework is here somewhere!"

Mr. Scott: "Timber!!!"

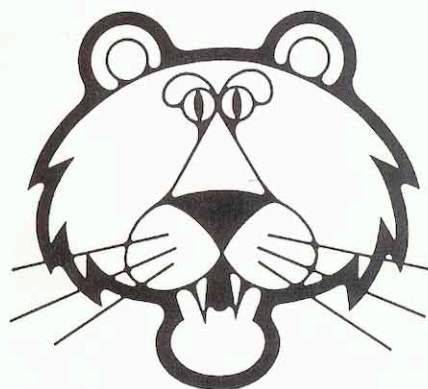

Amy Beasley: "What . . . are you crazy!"

Scott Broadway and Art Bawcum: "Going where no man has gone before."

Stacey Dennison: " $H_2O + CO_2$ — Huh?"

What Spirit!

Candice Tutor: "Rosson, you can't cry in front of the whole school!"

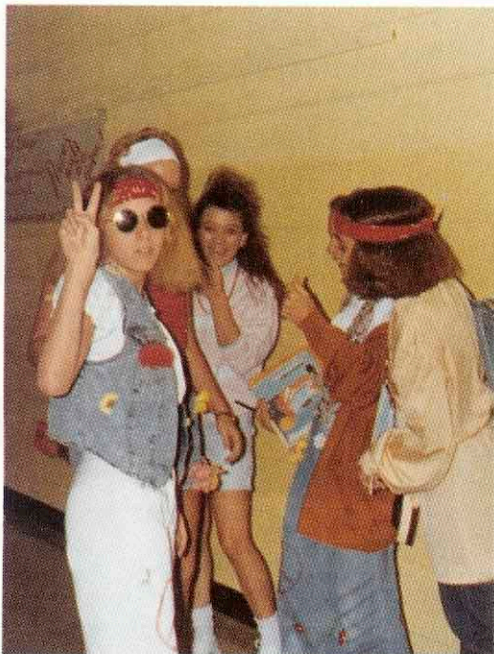

One of the highlights of the school year is football homecoming week. It's a week that is packed with activities. It is also a week for students to be filled with school spirit.

Every day of the week students show their spirit by dressing like hippies, in blue and gold, 50's style, and other fun and crazy ways.

On Thursday, the students practice hard for the homecoming ceremonies the following night. Thursday night is also the bonfire, where the students go to have fun and get pepped up for the Homecoming game.

Friday is more or less the grand finale with bell yell, a spirited pep rally, and the traditional homecoming parade. As you can see, Homecoming week is a week you can describe as "What Spirit!"

Ruth Ward: "Hey dude — Peace!"

Dorinda Renfroe: "Where's my toothpaste?"

Sharon Gill: "I really dig your slippers."

Chris McNatt: "Captain America!!"

Janie Jones: "What are you really writing, Teresa?"

Sophomore girls: "Just do it — 50's style!"

Riverside Marching Panther Band

The Riverside Marching Band marched forty-five members this year and is growing stronger by the minute. This year the band competed in the Milan Invitational Marching Contest; the Gibson County High School Invitational Marching Contest, where the band placed third; and the Natchez Trace Marching Band Classic, where the band and auxiliary placed second. They also participated and competed in several Christmas and spring parades. Way to go, band, and good luck next year!

The Business Professionals of America, under the advisory of Shari Wood, not only learn job skills necessary for their future, but also participate in fundraisers and community service projects.

The Tom Wat fundraiser provides money for the Halloween party for the CDC class and for the annual convention.

This national organization gives students a competitive spirit between each other and helps them succeed in whatever they do.

Jana Lee And Deena Camper reveal what they do in their spare time.

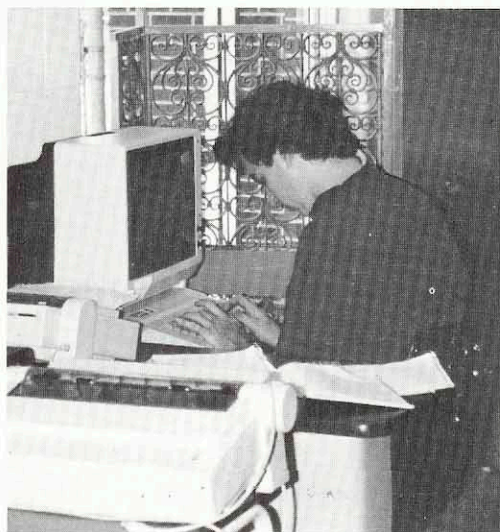

Alisha Montgomery says: "That's all right, I can get this by myself!"

Samantha Clift waits her turn in line while Allison Carrington signs her name to become a member of the Business Professionals of America.

Ginger Cruse says to Stacey Dennison: "Maybe we should get back to class. Mrs. Wood is probably wondering where we are by now."

John Shaw types his homework ... "Dear Cindy ..."

"So many Tom Wat orders, so little time," says Kristie White.

BPA members stuff their faces after sorting through Tom Wat orders.

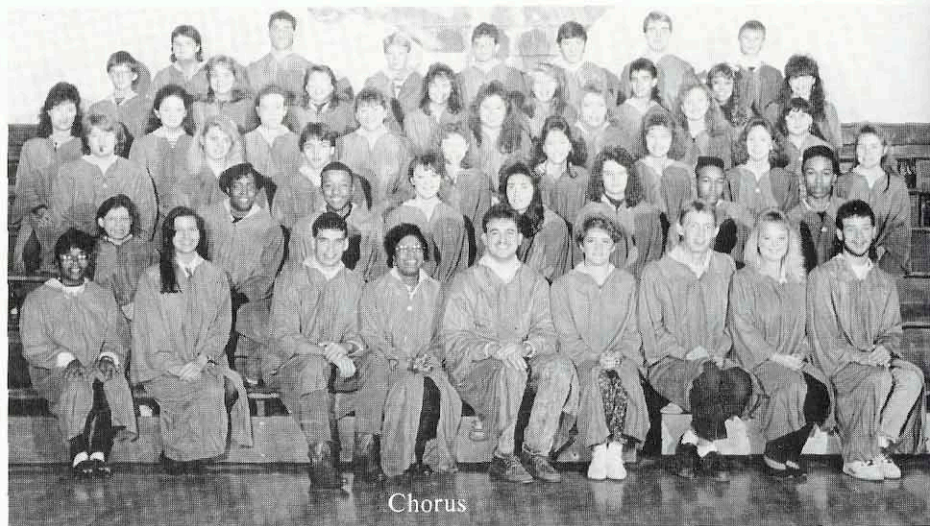

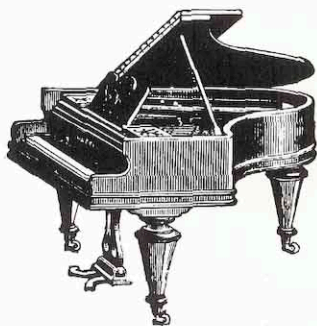

Chorus And Drama

A major part of our school participate in either chorus or drama. In chorus, Mrs. Calla Fisher, with the accompaniment of pianist Chris McNatt, helps each student find the hidden talent within themselves. Whether it be the drama putting on a play for the school or the choir performing a concert, each student does his or her best to make the performance memorable for everyone.

Raymond Sanchez asks Nan Fox, "What's cookin', good lookin'?"

Students Against Driving Drunk

Junior and Senior S.A.D.D. members. S.A.D.D. Officers: President — Becky Butler, Vice President — Betsy Slaton, Secretary — Misty Strawn, Treasurer — Chris McNatt, Public Relations — Art Bawcum.

Marianna Holcomb, Mark Keeton, and Willie Mills are participating in Red Ribbon Week. The red ribbon represents support of a drug-free America.

At Right: Jamie Nance, Libby Quinn, and Mrs. Fisher participate in wrapping the red ribbon around our school.

Peer Counselors

Peer Counselors are a group of students dedicated to creating a drug-free America. The Peer Counselors sometimes put on skits with drug-free themes. Last summer several of the Peer Counselors took time out of their busy schedules to hold a day camp for the second- and third-graders, showing them they can resist peer pressure.

Seated: Marilyn Russell, Jeanne Sanchez, Betsy Gill, Aundrea Tole. Standing: Kim Pettigrew, Sharon Gill, Misty Strawn, Betsy Slaton, Amy Strawn, Stephanie Brasher. Back Row: Sherry Pitts, Chris McNatt, Janie Jones, Juan Fisher.

Just clowning. Marilyn Russell helps Jean Sanchez with her costume, as they prepare put on drug awareness skits for the students elementary schools to help them to say no drugs.

1. Tonya Armstrong: "Cook, cook, cook, that's all I do!"

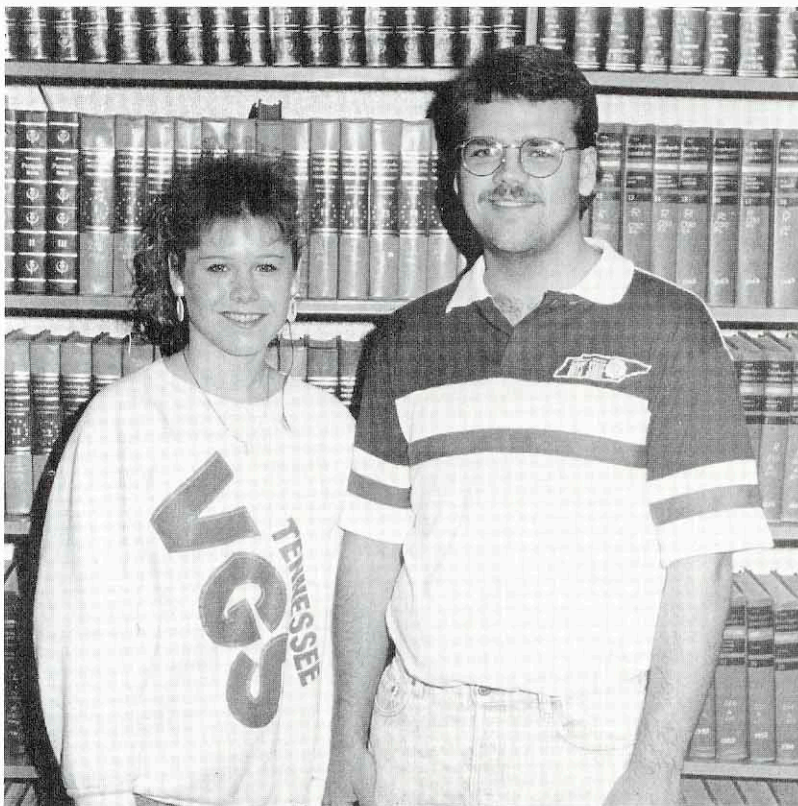

2. Missi Gurley: "Well, is it going to come out or not?"

3. Tammy Benton, Diana Smart, and Lana Taylor making tray favors for the Nursing Home.

4. Virginia Benton to Melodie Weatherford: "I hope it's good — oh please — let it be good."

Kari Kecton: "Let's make this one a little sweeter!"

Boys' And Girls' State

American Legion Boys' State and Volunteer Girls' State are educational experiences for delegates from high schools across the state. They participate in many simulations of the operation of our government.

Jamie Wallace attended Boys' State at Tennessee Tech and Betsy Slaton attended Girls' State at MTSU. They studied the Tennessee government and recreated the democratic system by forming small states, cities, and counties with the other groups in the program.

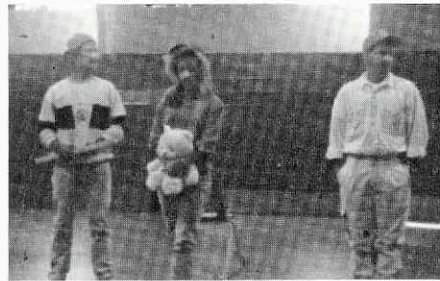

West Tennessee

Career Association

The West Tennessee Career Association provides knowledge and motivation needed for success in the world of work. The association works hand-in-hand with the school system in helping to prepare well-adjusted, employable citizens who seek and maintain full-time employment. The students enrolled in WTCA are "preparing today for a career tomorrow." WTCA Officers: Layla Ward — Secretary, Scotti Pettigrew — Leadership Development, Missy Ray — Career Preparation, Angie Alley — Chapter Advisor, Christal Rice — President, Laura Lee Scott — Civic Affairs, Rhonda Roach — Social Affairs.

True Colors

Are you Gold? Maybe Orange. Possibly you're Blue or Green. Whatever Color you are, you should let it show. True Colors is a great project the whole school is involved in, and students have done many things to show off their True Colors. Whether it was performing a skit, helping decorate the doors, or dressing up during True Colors Week, everyone has done his part. The teachers expressed their True Colors, too.

True Colors is a way to identify people and their personalities by seeing them as either Blue, Orange, Green, or Gold. It helps us to understand and respect others, and to develop high esteem for ourselves and for others, no matter what Color.

CONGRATULATIONS: MISTY, JENNIFER, PAULA, & JAMIE!!!

Chris McNatt

Congratulations on reaching this goal and we wish you success as you start toward new goals in life. We hope you always dare to be different. We love you.
Mom and Dad

to Sharon, my fellow hippie, the ability to win the RHS Spirit Stick during Homecoming Week; to Jennifer A., a dog bite on my neck and a new blush brush; to Nancy, the picture she's always wanted; to Sharon B., the ability to have as much N.K.O.T.B. stuff as I do; to Ginger, the ability to win the contest and the ability to keep Jeremy H. from doing her make-up; to Jeremy Horner, my friendship, the ability to stay off of back roads and the ability to be as jealous as I am sometimes; to Don Bates, my friendship, the memories of all the fun we had together, some of my video and cassette tapes, and all the fun I had in High School; to Mrs. Vestal, a round tuit; to Mr. Crosby, the dot that was never there; to Mrs. Dodd, the most happiness life offers; to Mr. Wright, a band that will stomp Lexington and every other band; to all the teachers that I've ever had, thanks for giving me the discipline I needed to succeed in life, and thanks for being more than a teacher, but a friend too; to Mrs. K. Townsend, the memories of those wonderful yearbook deadlines; to Carissa, a big towel for when she goes swimming; to Nan, a bigger hotel room in Europe; to M.H., the ability to not get caught; to Deena C., a dozen of eggs; to Samantha C., the ability to be on time for Mr. Conger's class; to Traci M., a super size bag of Bar-B-Q corn chips; to Jimmy Dan, my friendship, my English journal, the key to my locker so you can get all of my music out, and the responsibility of playing the piano for the vocal choir, and remember, "It's your baby now!"; to Matt P., the ability to get a tan during gym class; to Matt D., a can of hot stuff and some untouchable skin; to Richard G., my friendship, one of my chocolate cookies during lunch on Friday, and a few days you can borrow my glasses; to Michelle and Melissa, the ability to drive without protection on your gear shift; to Joey C., a piece of bubble gum; to Jenny W., a friend who will stand up for you in rough situations; to Amy C., a broken locker; to Lin Tennyson, my eternal friendship, and those pictures you always wanted, the ability to know what true loves is, and a special someone in your life who will treat you right; to Layla, the ability to blink your eyes and wave to someone at the same time; to all of my friends in the Junior High, all of the fun and excitement I have had, and remember "This is just the beginning!"; to Barbie, my true friendship, and a better picture of me than she's got; to Melissa, all the memories of the times we practiced for countless hours on the trumpet; to Melanie Blasingim, someone who will treat you right, my love and friendship, and my seat on the band bus; to Jennifer Rebecca Chism, my friendship, my everlasting love, the memories of all the great times we had together, the ability to sneak out on Halloween, and one of the best friendships ever; to Shonda Ann French, my everlasting love and friendship, the ability to fix hair as well as I do, your missing diary page, a package of chocolate chip cookie dough, the ability to love just one person per day, October 3, 1990, and an electric toothbrush of your own, so you can stop using mine; to K.S.A., all of my truest love forever, all of the wonderful times we had together, a ride by the Amoco station, a trip to the hospital, a short stop by the Co-Op, March 31, 1990, the ring that was once yours, the happiness you gave to my life, all of our songs, and remember "I'll Always Love You!"; to those who have said anything bad about me, an acne attack so severe that the Guinness Book of World Records will be calling your house; to all of my friends, I love you very much, and I will you all the memories I have had at Riverside; and last but not least, my parents, again I wish to thank you for always being there for me when I needed you most, and giving me the support I needed to make my life a lot better. I Love You Mom and Dad!

Congratulations, Kristy, and May God Bless you. We love you and are very proud of you.

Raymond Sanchez

Congratulations Ray!
Thank you for being the kind of son any family would be proud to claim. May your future be a "great adventure" and may all your "dragons" be little ones.

Love Always,
Mom, Dad, Jeanne,
and Doug

Marilyn Gail Russell

Congratulations Marilyn,

We are very proud of your accomplishments. Remember — Phillipians 4:13, "I CAN DO ALL THINGS THROUGH CHRIST WHICH STRENGTHEN-ETH ME."

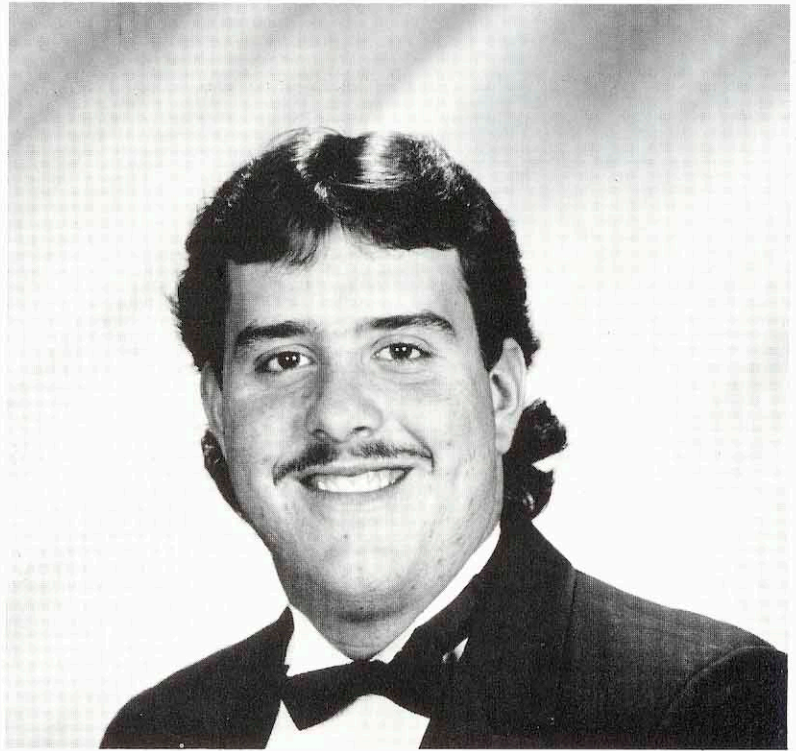

We love you

I remember when you were my little girl, as much as a part of me as my right arm. My every breath held you in my mind — then suddenly one morning you were grown. I wasn't finished with you, we must love our children enough to let them go. But in my heart you will always be my little girl.

We love you,
Jacky, Mama,
Heather, And
Whitney

Jason Moody

You have become a fine young man that we are very proud of. May you always have the happiness you deserve and attain all of the goals in life that you set for yourself. You have made us very proud to call you son.

We love you,

Elizabeth

Gina Parrish

When you were a little girl you were so sweet and dear, and though, of course, you've changed a lot with every passing year. Now at graduation time it finds you dearer than before and adds so many reasons for loving you still more . . . Congratulations on graduating from high school and good luck with your new beginning in life. You have made me very proud and I love you very much!

Daddy

Jamie Wallace

Congratulations Jamie,

We are very proud of you, not just for all your accomplishments but for just being you. May your future be filled with happiness and satisfaction.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

Gina Stowe

Congratulations Gina,

We are very proud of you and what you've done in your accomplishments! We know you'll get what you deserve out of life, even though it will be hard sometimes. Good luck, Baby Girl, in all that you do and say.

We love you very much,
Moma and Daddy

In Memory Of

Karen Crawford Johnson

We used to walk together
Cheerful, laughing,
And joking down the halls.

I will never forget
Your pixie smile
And that jolly laugh,
That only you had.

There were so many things
That went unspoken,
So many things
I'd like to say,
But you were God's chosen one for that day.

When I start feeling sad
I think of you
And all the good times we had.

by Jennie Spence

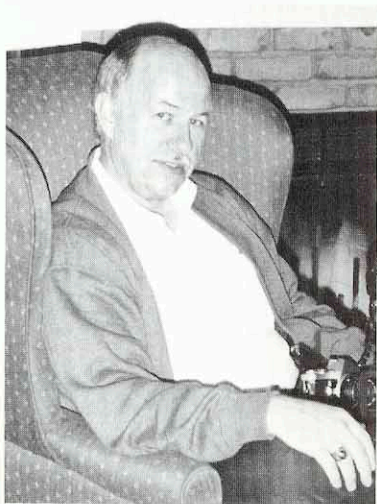

We love you and miss you very much.
Mom, Jimmy Darrell, Sherri, Emily, Danny, Jennie, and others that love you.

158 — Closing

WHO WROTE THAT? — Gina Stowe, Becky Butler, and Julianna Gregory.

Who knew creating a book could take so much work? — Candice Tutor, Betsy Slaton, and Jennifer Rosson

Sharon Gill: Well, look on the bright side! Either we'll get through this deadline, or you'll graduate and won't have to worry about it anymore.

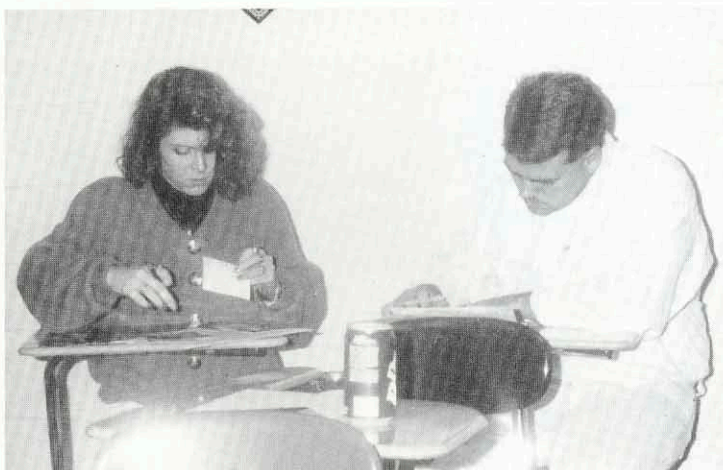

Everything seems to be in order here. — Sharon Gill

Stephanie Davis: "Gina, I think this says e-r-a-y-oo-k-b, but that can't be right."

Jennifer Rosson: "Candice, Betsy, which one of you is going to clean up this mess?"

Editor and Co-Editor working side by side in perfect harmony. Becky: "Surely Jamie isn't going to put this stupid picture in there."

Becky: "I wish they would quit tracing their hands and get back to work."

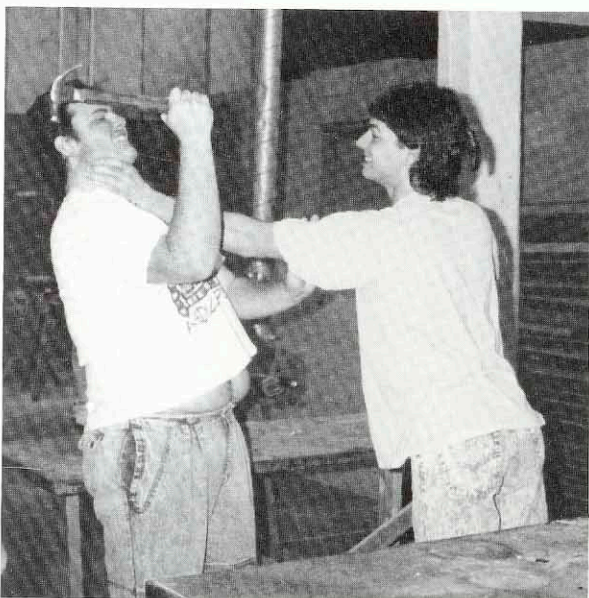

Chris McNatt: "I am so happy that someone invented white-out!"

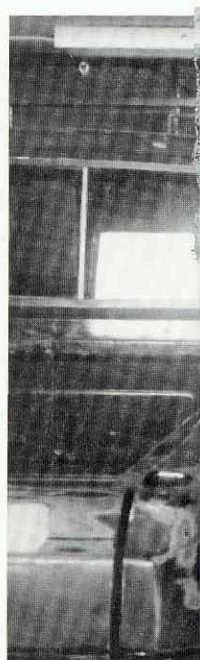

What A Year!

Shannon Johnson, Misty Yarbrow, Christy Lampley, & Jana Lee:
"Cheese!"

Kelly Crosby and Stacie Steward:
"Creo que no!"

Steve Simpson and Randy Johnson: "Hammer Time!"

Christy Wilkins: "Yes, we're nosy!"

Ryan Swindle: "Now what color is this truck supposed to be?"

Kristie, Paula, Shellie, and Jen: Die hard Grease fans!

Janie Jones: "Harley Momma!"

Wendy Funderburk: "What was that again?"

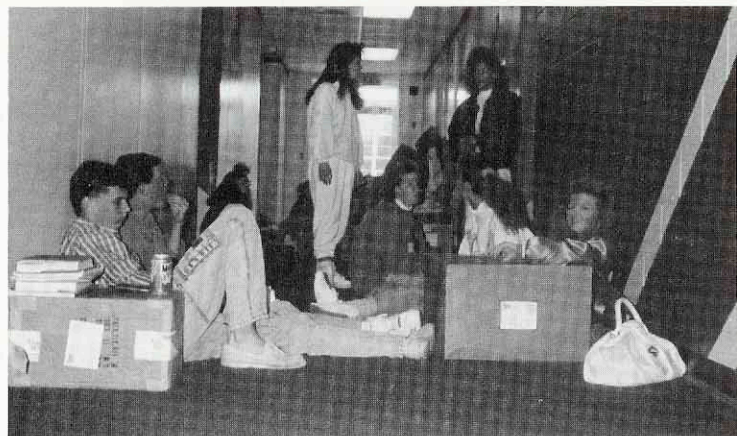

Deana Grace and Allison Carrington: Lean on Me!

Teresa Smith: "Is she going to talk forever?"

Jamie Kelly: "Think you got close enough?"

Homecoming: "Anytime you think you're ready!"

Susan Miller: "You got a problem?"

BPA: "Thank goodness Tom Wat is over!"
